Details

Elegant French Provincial Rococo-style commode crafted from walnut, featuring five drawers with intricately carved panels and a shaped skirt. The piece rests on finely carved cabriole-legs, showcasing the ornate craftsmanship typical of the 1800s period. Each drawer is fitted with large brass pulls and decorative key escutcheons; please note that there are no functioning locks or keys.

The top middle drawer is a secret drawer and can be open only if the 2 side drawers are open.
