Details

Using tonal value to define shape, light, perspective, and movement, the artist's clean-lined accuracy, and simplicity enhance a fascination with this stylish piece.

It is encased in a similarly slick solid walnut frame with a back of solid birch.

Henri Laborde, one of the finest French restorers on the West Coast, created this complex and structural black & white acrylic abstract painting on a black background.

Great for interiors with a minimalist, glam, or industrial aesthetic - and much more. Great for office spaces and parts of the home where you need just the right amount of visual detail minus the overwhelming color.
