Details

This vintage wall print of a woman, "Blue Wind," is elegantly signed and dated 1970. It boasts a bohemian-inspired aesthetic in a sleek gold metal frame. It measures an impressive 30" x 40" in size.

With her cascading blonde hair, reminiscent of golden wheat fields, and piercing blue eyes, she emerges as a figure imbued with an ethereal, almost otherworldly energy. The girl's intense and unwavering gaze cuts through the distance, forging a connection that transcends the boundaries of the frame. It is a gaze that dares to defy societal norms and expectations.

The presence of the model who inspired this artwork is potent, emanating an aura of immense strength yet leaving the beholder unable to decipher the true essence of her expression. It is an enigma, inviting speculation and drawing one deeper into its mysterious realm.
