

Mid-Century Pair of Brutalist Mixed Wood Grain
Pedestals/Benches

As low as $1,800

In stock

SKU

LU825838474482

Details

This Pair of Brutalist Walnut Pedestals/Benches inspired maybe by Milo Baughman showcase the timeless beauty of natural species of different woods.

The rectangular solid wood blocks are meticulously assembled to form each pedestal. Thanks to the artisan's skill in stacking wedges with precision, the various shades, irregularities, and grains of the wood blend modern aesthetics with the raw and elemental beauty of brutalist design.

The warm, rich tones of the woods, in particular walnut, make this pair stands out as bold statements in any decor, be it used as stylish pedestals or benches.

REFERENCE NUMBER: LU825838474482

PERIOD: Late 20th Century

CONDITION: Good

MEASUREMENTS: Height: 42.5" Width: 15.5" Depth: 15.5"

COUNT: Set of 2

MATERIAL: Walnut, Hand-Crafted

CREATOR: Milo Baughman

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN: United States