Details

Crafted by Harvey Probber, this round black and walnut coffee table is not just a functional piece but a statement of classic Mid-Century Modern design.

The table stands on legs stained in an elegant ebony color, enhanced by a cross stretcher and adorned with brass foot caps. The brass sabots underscores the table's attention to detail and craftsmanship. A distinguishing feature of this coffee table is the black square panel centerpiece. This unique design element sets the table apart, as most of these tables have usually a circular centerpiece. The table has the stamped manufacturer's mark on the underside : [6-57E 4C1 229-4653-1 ORBIT).
