Details

A refined example of Scandinavian craftsmanship, this rectangular walnut mirror by DUX embodies the timeless simplicity and warmth of mid-century Swedish design. The clean lines and subtle grain of the walnut frame highlight the brand's signature balance of natural materials and modern form.

This versatile piece can be hung vertically or horizontally, making it suitable for an entryway, bedroom, or living room. Its minimalist silhouette and rich walnut tone allow it to blend seamlessly with both modern and vintage interiors.

Condition

Very good vintage condition with light wear consistent with age. The original DUX label and hand-written control marks remain on the back panel, confirming authenticity.
