Details

This pair of mid-century Grey Italian Armchairs showcases classic Italian modern design with a contemporary twist.

They boast retro angular lines, creating a striking silhouette. The flared black angled metal legs, featuring iron round feet with brass glides, provide sturdy support. The grey velvet upholstery enhances the tactile experience and adds an element of coziness and refinement to the overall design.

This fusion of materials and finishes contributes to the chairs' unique charm. Designed as more than just seating, these armchairs serve as functional art pieces, making a statement in any room.
