Details

Elegant and timeless, this pair of mid-century modern walnut nightstands from the Huxley collection by Thomasville exemplifies the refined craftsmanship of 1960s American design. Each nightstand features clean architectural lines, a warm walnut veneer with a rich natural grain, and recessed panel detailing that gives depth and sophistication to the minimalist silhouette.

Their balanced proportions make them versatile — ideal as bedside tables, living room side tables, or entryway accent pieces. Solidly built and beautifully finished, these nightstands reflect Thomasville's enduring quality and attention to material.
