Details

The watercolour painting by French painter France Cami represents a still-life in a semi-abstract style.

The dominant colour is a striking pink, which immediately draws the viewer's attention, while the black and red hues add a sense of contrast and depth. The brushstrokes are light, creating an impression of movement and fluidity. The brown undertones provide a sense of grounding to the composition.

It is framed in a simple modern black frame that enhances the overall impact of the painting.
