Details

A nude drawing and gouache highlighting the pregnancy mystery. Signed Radoczy, 1965.

Albert Radoczy was a painter from the NY Tristate area, most notably in the 1960s and 1970s. Radoczy was a master at exploring the female form. Throughout his career, his drawings and paintings depicted women with images ranging from realistic to whimsical, sensual to spiritual and from ethereal to hallucinatory. Albert later opened noteworthy design firm, Habitat Associates with Warren Nardin and later Paul Mayen. Habitat designed modern furniture, lighting and architectural elements such as fabrics, wallpaper, and accessories. They worked directly with architects and designers and were included in "Good Living" - a series of exhibitions and publications curated by the Metropolitan Museum of Art. His solo work has also been exhibited at the Whitney Museum of American Art (Annual Exhibit 1962), the Brooklyn Museum (Print Exhibit 1962), the MoMA Lending Collection (1965) and the NJ State Museum.
