Details

Known for racing against the waves, these three sandpipers' energy and ethereal qualities are reflected in this serene beach scene against a frothy surf. The calmness of the shoreline invites you to glide along with these cheeky birds, using watercolors to blend colors while creating blurred edges effortlessly. Signed in the bottom right corner by Ruth Cline, and framed in natural oak. Reminiscent of Impressionism, in watercolor, and has also enjoyed painting in oil with a palette knife to this day. She is a cheerful and kind woman who loves to share creativity with others through a Pencils & Paints Class in Gainesville, Florida.
